THE RED-3 LANYARD

THE LANYARDS OF CHAMPIONS

The all new three headed monster 2 in 1 Positioning Lanyard offers a better solution for Work Positioning. Its built-in prusik allows for ascending without the need to detach from the tree, adding efficiency, ease, and security while you climb.

The ends of the line includes double ended snaps plus our Bulldog Prusik with or without a hook. The brilliant red color gives maximum visibility to this ANSI Z133 compliant lanyard. Its nylon core gives more flexibility making it ideal for arborists.
